Special Scriptures for Special Needs

Two power house Scriptures you can use now

Num 23:19-20

1 9
God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

2 0
Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it. (KJV)

These Scriptures are in the context of Balaam and his foolishness. First, look at the expression in verse 19, "hath He spoken and shall He not make it good?" If God spoke it, depend on it! He will make it good. He will make it come to pass. He cannot deny what He says because this is equal to denying himself.

Furthermore, Balaam said that he received a commandment from God to bless the people. No matter how much he or anyone else would be paid to curse the people, he cannot reverse their blessing.

What a powerful statement! When God commands blessing on a person or a people, no one, devil, demon, false prophet or anyone else can reverse it. It is set in concrete. A blessing commanded by and from God is ironclad. Nothing nor no one can reverse it. It will in fact come to pass. But there's more!

Josh 1:8

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. (KJV)

Everyone wants their way prosperous and have good success. Do you want prosperity and success? This one Scripture gives God's Three Part Formula to obtain both.

God's book of the Law must not depart out of their mouth.
They must meditate in God's law day and night.
They must do according to all that is written.

This plan or formula is just as valid today as it was when it was written. We must learn to talk God's word rather than circumstances. We need to say less of circumstances and more of what God says he is about to do about our circumstances.

We must meditate constantly in those things God has said. The Saturday Evening Post won't help. You can quote them to your circumstances all day long and nothing will ever happen to change them. But speak the word of God to your circumstances and watch them wither up, dry up and blow away.

Finally, we must do what God says we are to do in his word. If we are only a hearer, we will never get anywhere with God. But when we do what He says, he will begin to make our confession of his word come to pass. In other words, speak God's word rather than your circumstance word and miracles will happen for you.

Special Scriptures for Special Needs

We have a strong section in our book, *How to Obtain Abraham's Blessings*. This lines it out. If you speak your circumstances you will stay in your circumstances. Speak God's word and you will get in and stay in God's new set of circumstances.

Special Scriptures for Special Needs

More Confession Scriptures you can use...now_

Both the Old and the New Testament are filled with dynamite Scriptures concerning our saying with our mouths what God said in His word. Our problem is not God's word; our problem is our not saying to our circumstances what God said in His word.

Jonah 2:8-10

8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land. (KJV)

Take the case of Jonah. In the Scriptures above, he was in the belly of the great fish. This was his circumstances. Nevertheless, he had promises that God was not through with him yet. He compared the promises of God with the circumstances of being inside the great fish. Although he recognized this as his circumstances, he called these circumstances "lying vanities." In his own mind, Jonah knew if he gave heed to them (he called them lying vanities) he would forsake the very mercies of God.

He had a choice to make. He could continuously be caught up observing, thinking on and speaking of these lying vanity circumstances. Or he could dive into the mercies of God and stay there. So he sacrificed the sacrifice of thanksgiving and paid a vow that he had vowed to God. He did these things even though every thing rational screamed against Jonah's thanking God for salvation and deliverance.

But notice what his sacrifice of thanksgiving profited Jonah. God spoke to the fish and it vomited Jonah upon dry land. You and I can do this also. We can do what Jonah did and have the same result.

Even the Centurion understood this concept as he asked Jesus to heal his servant.

Matt 8:8

The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. (KJV)

He told Jesus that he had such confidence in His word, that he (Jesus) did not even have to go home with him for his servant to be healed. All He had to do was speak the word only and his servant would be healed. Isn't this a powerful testimony from a professional soldier about his confidence in Jesus spoken word.

Would to God we all had this confidence. What great things we could accomplish in the supernatural. Just imagine! We would be operating in the power of Jesus' word, not our own word. No wonder the writer of Proverbs 18: 21 made the following statement.

Prov 18:21

Special Scriptures for Special Needs

21      Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. (KJV)

Learn to operate in the “life” aspect of your speech. If you speak your own words concerning your circumstances, you will stay in and “die” in your circumstance. On the other hand, if you speak God’s word over your circumstances, “life” will permeate them and change them into the word from God that you spoke. This is the meaning of “life and death are in the power of the tongue.”

Again, see *How to Obtain Abraham’s Blessings*. This book contains a section devoted to saying with your mouth what God says in his word and you can change your circumstances.

Healing Scriptures You Can Use Now_

Exod 15:26

I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee. (KJV)

Exod 23:25

25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. (KJV)

Deut 7:15

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. (KJV)

How plain can the Word of God make it? If this doesn't nail it to the floor, if this doesn't set it in concrete, then I don't know what will. This is as definitive as anyone can make! No Scriptures say it any better than these three.

Twice God's word said that God doesn't put sickness upon us and twice it said that God will take sickness away from us:

I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians, Verse 26 above.

I will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee, Verse 15 above.

I will take sickness away from the midst of thee, Verse 25 above.

I will take away from thee all sickness, verse 15 above.

In the list immediately above, notice the word "none" in 1. and 2. Then notice the word "all" in 4.

God will put "no" disease upon us. Furthermore, He will take "all" sickness away from us.

Ironclad! These things are said to The Abrahamic Seed Group into which Gentile Christians are grafted. Therefore, these promises belong to us now, here today. Thank God for it. See our book, *What are Abraham's Blessings Anyway?* This gives you a complete treatment of our grafting into these Scriptures.

Special Scriptures for Special Needs

They Misinterpret these Faith Building Scriptures_

Many teach that the Abrahamic covenant was fulfilled in Joshua's day. They do this to get around the healing and prosperity so obviously contained in it. Of course they recognize that we are grafted into this same healing and prosperity today. They attempt to base their mistaken view on the three Scriptures below. As we shall see, they are sadly mistaken.

Josh 21:45

45 There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass. (KJV)

Josh 23:14

14 And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof. (KJV)

IKing 8:56

Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant. (KJV)

First, the word "fulfilled" is not used at all in the above three verses. Why? Because that is neither the intent nor the meaning of these verses. They say that the promises never "failed" up to that point in history but they never said they were "fulfilled." They were not fulfilled because history was still unfolding. To say that something never failed is radically different from saying something is fulfilled.

Second, Jesus, the seed of Abraham, the one of whom Promise #60 spoke, would have had to have been born prior to the writing of these three verses had the Abrahamic covenant been fulfilled. Otherwise, the Jesus we know is a fraud since he was born after the writing of the above verses. (You see there are Sixty Promises in the Abrahamic covenant. See our book, *What are Abraham's Blessings Anyway?* You will find them listed for you.

Third, if these verses really do mean "fulfilled," then this flies right in the face of the promises of the covenant being eternal and forever. How can the Abrahamic covenant be eternal-forever when it was fulfilled in Joshua's day? It can't be eternal-forever and be fulfilled then. Yet five of the 60 Promises God made to Abraham, speak of the forever-eternal duration of the covenant. These are Promise #'s 9,35,38,48 and 49. If the covenant was fulfilled in Joshua's day, the five Promises must be removed from the Bible unless we concede that the covenant was "not failed" at that point but "not fulfilled."

Fourth, if the covenant had been fulfilled, rather than not failing to a certain point in history, then no one has been saved since. In other words, salvation in both the Old and New Testaments is based upon the Abrahamic covenant.

Special Scriptures for Special Needs

If it had been fulfilled, then what is salvation based upon since? We don't find, anywhere in the Bible, that the base of salvation has been changed. It is still based on the seed of the Abrahamic covenant as recorded as Promise #60. See below.

Gen 22:18

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. (KJV)

In Galatians 3, Paul is emphatic. He declares with no uncertainty that the seed of Promise #60 above is Jesus. Who is right here, Paul or those who try to get rid of the Abrahamic covenant? Salvation is still based on the seed of Promise #60 above! Consequently, those substituting "fulfilled" for "not failed" are so very badly mistaken. The covenant, including healing, prosperity and salvation, are still in force for each Gentile Christian today. See our book, *What are Abraham's Blessings Anyway?*

Special Scriptures for Special Needs

The Curse in Promise #7

When Jacob fled from Esau, he stayed with Laban for twenty very difficult years. They were difficult because Laban cheated him and abused him. Nevertheless, God evened things up between Jacob and Laban as the following Scripture shows.

First, God blessed Jacob while with Laban with material goods, specifically Laban's cattle. Furthermore, Jacob attributed this transfer of cattle to his membership in the Abrahamic Seed Group, to his place in the promises of the Abrahamic covenant.

Gen 31:9

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me. (KJV)

But this is not all! He also attributed to Promise #7 the taking of Laban's cattle and the giving of them to himself. See the Scripture below.

Gen 31:42

Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight. (KJV)

Now see Promise #7 below. This is the first recorded instance (that I can remember off the top of my head) where Promise #7 is put in gear by our Lord.

Gen 12:3

And I will...curse him that curseth thee...(KJV)

To Jacob, the fact that God gave Laban's cattle to him was the direct result of Promise #7. We all know, as illogical as it may seem, that this still applies to the physical descendants of Abraham today. Nevertheless, my experience shows that Promise #7 is also at work today for the grafted seed of Abraham today. I mean all Gentile Christians. I have seen that those who come against us do not prosper down the road.

For a full treatment of this subject, see Chapter Two in our book, *What are Abraham's Blessings Anyway?* They tell me that this is the most definitive work on this subject.
